CALL FOR PAPERS CO-SCIENCE (Computer Science)

E-ISSN : 2774-9711

P-ISSN : 2808-9065

Computer Science (CO-SCIENCE) is a journal of scientific research in the fields of Networking, Mobile Applications, Software Engineering, Web Programming, Mobile Computing, Cloud Computing, Data Mining, and Science Applications. It features articles that have not been published online. It accepts scientific articles, literature reviews, or research results from all researchers. It features scientific articles that have not been published online.

Article submissions are accepted monthly, with publications scheduled for January and July each year. All accepted articles undergo a blind peer review process, prioritizing the detection of plagiarism and the implications of research for industry.
